A World Apart

No other river can match the Danube's unmatched history, scenic beauty, and cultural treasures. It's a journey through time, taking you from the ancient Austrian capital of Vienna, where Beethoven and Mozart once walked, to the historic Romanian town of Bucharest, home to three palaces of the Romanian royal family. In between, you'll admire the might of the Iron Gate, one of Eastern Europe's mightiest bastions.

A World Apart

The Danube is the major east-west waterway of Europe, and the longest river in Europe, winding through 10 countries from the Black Sea to the Bavarian Alps. The river and its tributaries have had a profound impact on the development of human civilization, providing a vital avenue for trade and communication for centuries.

A World Apart

Embark your first-class river ship.

On the MS Amadeus Silver, you'll find everything you need to make your journey memorable. From the moment you step on board, you'll be greeted with a warm welcome and a comfortable, relaxing atmosphere. The ship's modern design and décor are a nod to the local culture, while the ship's facilities are designed to provide you with the ultimate in comfort and luxury.

A World Apart

Melk Abbey.

The abbey is a shining feature of Belgrade's cityscape. Known as one of the most beautiful and important religious sites in the Balkans, it has a long and rich history. The abbey was founded in the 11th century and has played a crucial role in the region's cultural and religious life since then.

A World Apart

In Vienna, you'll have the opportunity to visit Schönbrunn Palace, a former imperial summer residence that's now a museum. The palace is a masterpiece of Baroque architecture and is filled with paintings, statues, and antiques from the Habsburg emperors. You'll also have the chance to visit the State Hall of the Hofburg Palace, a grand room filled with gold and opulence.

A World Apart

Prague National Jewish Museum.

This museum is dedicated to the history and culture of the Jewish community in Prague. It features a collection of artifacts, documents, and photographs that tell the story of the Jewish population in the city, from the Middle Ages to the present day.

A World Apart

The Velvet Underground.

This iconic rock band, formed in New York City in 1965, is known for its pioneering role in the development of punk rock and post-punk music. They were known for their experimental sound and avant-garde style, and their influence can still be heard in modern alternative rock and indie music.

A World Apart

The Danube awaits on the abbey's terrace.

Here, where the Augustinian Order used to reside, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy a unique wine tasting experience. The abbey's wine cellar is a treasure trove of rare and exquisite wines, and you'll have the chance to learn about the history of winemaking in the region and sample some of the best local vintages.

A World Apart

Days Six to Twelve

The Danube, the longest river in Europe, flows through 10 countries and offers a unique perspective on the region's history, culture, and natural beauty. Whether you're a history buff or a nature lover, the Danube has something to offer everyone.

A World Apart

Bratislava, Slovakia.

This charming city is known for its Roman ruins and Ottoman mosques, which have been turned into churches. It's also a great place to sample Slovakian food, which is known for its hearty, spicy dishes.

A World Apart

Mosques, which have been turned into churches.

This capital was once two cities — Buda and Pest — on opposite sides of the Danube. The two cities were united in 1873 to form Budapest, which is now the capital of Hungary.

A World Apart

Enjoy the original Viennese Waltz. Try the steps yourself, glide across the dance floor and make memories!

The original Viennese Waltz is a traditional Austrian dance that originated in Vienna in the 19th century. It's known for its graceful, flowing movements and is still performed at dance halls and ballrooms around the world today.

A World Apart

Day twelve l b d

Enjoy a unique wine tasting experience on the abbey's terrace.

The abbey's wine cellar is a treasure trove of rare and exquisite wines, and you'll have the chance to learn about the history of winemaking in the region and sample some of the best local vintages.
