Paul Cashman ’73
Arts & Sciences
North Reading, MA

Favorite Cornell Spot: The Arts Quad. It’s the heart of campus
Favorite Cornell Tradition: Singing the “Evening Song” at Cornell gatherings
Cornell Volunteer Communities: Class of 1973; Cornell Association of Class Officers (CACO); Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassador Network (CAAAN); Cornell University Council (CUC)
First CU Volunteer Experience: Doing a phonathon in 1974 with the Cornell Club of San Francisco. I won a beautiful china Cornell piggy bank. Plus, I spoke with an alumna from the Class of 1915, who went to med school after Cornell. She was fascinating!
Most Impactful CU Volunteer Experience: With a classmate, developing a systematic way to reach out to affinity groups at our 35th Reunion. I’ve since taught the methodology to more than a dozen classes, plus given a seminar and webinar on it.

Jennifer Chung ’98
Arts & Sciences
New York, NY

Favorite Cornell Spot: A slope in Cornell Plantations, near the botanical gardens
Favorite Cornell Tradition: Any time a gathering of Cornellians sing the alma mater
Cornell Volunteer Communities: Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassador Network (CAAAN): CAAAN Advisory Committee (C'AC); co-chair, Metro NYC; co-chair, Committee 25 (Stuyvesant High School); Arts & Sciences Career Connections Committee (ASCCC) (Team Leader, Government & Policy Team)
First CU Volunteer Experience: 1999, CAAAN while I was in Albany for law school
Most Recent CU Volunteer Experience: Assisting with CAAAN events in NYC this summer
Most Impactful CU Volunteer Experience: I love every interaction with prospective students and parents, especially when I’m able to provide the kind of insight that only comes with having lived on the campus and in Ithaca and experienced Cornell as an undergraduate.

Mitchel Gendel ’87
Arts & Sciences
New York, NY

Favorite Cornell Spot: Relaxing on the Slope on a Fall day, looking down on Cayuga Lake
Favorite Cornell Tradition: Sleep through first hour of Wine’s class in Hotel school and wake up to some excellent samples of Italian or local Finger Lakes wines
Cornell Volunteer Communities: Arts & Sciences Career Connections Committee (ASCCC) (Law Team Leader); Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassador Network (CAAAN) interviewer; Cornell Extern program mentor
First CU Volunteer Experience: Interviewing prospective students for CAAAN
Most Recent CU Volunteer Experience: Hosted ASCCC networking event this past summer for Cornell students.
Most Impactful CU Volunteer Experience: Panelist for ASCCC Law Team, and discussing potential law school options with Cornell students
Donald Milsten ’60
Arts & Sciences
Baltimore, MD

Favorite Cornell Spot: Suspension Bridge
Favorite Cornell Tradition: Interfaith respect and coordination symbolized by Anabel Taylor Hall
Cornell Volunteer Communities: Cornell Association of Class Officers (CACO); Class of 1960 (Class Council)
First CU Volunteer Experience: Student outreach (area high schools) in 1956
Most Recent CU Volunteer Experience: Class Council; CALC; Reunion
Most Impactful CU Volunteer Experience: Calling affiliate group prior to two decades of Reunion

Michael Seltzer ’89
Arts & Sciences
Basking Ridge, NJ

Favorite Cornell Spot: The Arts Quad very late at night
Favorite Cornell Tradition: Slope Day concerts. My sophomore year was the Robert Cray Band, and it was my second date with my then-girlfriend, now-wife, Heather Alexander ’89. In more recent years, I’ve coordinated with the Cornell Concert Commission to bring artists like Ludacris, Neon Trees, and Taio Cruz to campus.
Cornell Volunteer Communities: Arts & Sciences Career Connections Committee (ASCCC)
First CU Volunteer Experience: Campus visits to speak with students in Lincoln Hall about careers in the music business
Most Recent CU Volunteer Experience: ASCCC 2014 rooftop summer jam event in NYC with almost 100 students and media/law alums. The curator of Cornell’s hip hop collection attended as our guest of honor and did a terrific presentation.
Most Impactful CU Volunteer Experience: Hosting Cornell students as summer interns and winter externs. Having started my career as a student intern at Radio City Music Hall, the British Film Institute, and Universal Music Group, I recognize the tremendous value in these opportunities.